POLICE INVESTIGATING HAZMAT INCIDENT

SUFFOLK, Virginia (July 13, 2015)   The Suffolk Police Department is currently investigating a hazardous materials incident that occurred in the 3900 block of Breezeport Way.

Emergency Communications received a call at 9:19 a.m. advising of two suspicious bottles that were found in a public trash can at a car wash station at the Harbour Breeze Apartments located in northern Suffolk near the Interstate 664 Hampton Roads Beltway.

Suffolk Fire & Rescue and the Fire Marshal also responded, as well as the Virginia State Police Hazmat team, who assisted with the removal of the bottles. The area had been cordoned off prior to their arrival until the suspected hazard could be removed. No evacuations were needed and there was no danger to the community.

Suffolk Police believe the bottles to be evidence of a portable methamphetamine producing lab. There are no suspects at this time.
