

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 15, 2015

Contact:

Diana L. Klink

757.514.4104

757.359.1845

CORRECTION/UPDATE

SUFFOLK, Virginia (July 15, 2015) Daylan Wilkins is currently out on bond, and not being held at Western Tidewater Regional Jail as previously noted.

The investigations remain ongoing and additional charges against both subjects are pending.

ARRESTS MADE IN RASH OF THEFTS FROM VEHICLES

SUFFOLK, Virginia (July 15, 2015) Suffolk Police advise that two individuals have been arrested following investigations into the recent rash of thefts from vehicles in the Lakeside and Riverview neighborhoods.

Multiple reports of unknown subjects tampering with vehicles in numerous downtown communities were received over the last several weeks, with citizens reporting various items stolen from their vehicles.

Dorian McLaughlin, age 19, of Suffolk, was arrested and charged with 6 counts of Petit Larcenies and 14 counts of Entering the Vehicle of Another to Commit a Crime. These charges are a result of 14 vehicles entered at 10 different locations, for a total of 20 charges. Additional charges are pending. McLaughlin is currently being held at Western Tidewater Regional Jail.

Daylan Wilkins, age 18, of Suffolk, was arrested and charged with 1 count of Grand Larceny, 8 counts of Petit Larcenies and 16 counts of Entering the Vehicle of Another to Commit a Crime. These charges are a result of 17 vehicles entered at 13 locations, for a total of 26 charges with additional charges pending. Wilkins is also currently being held at Western Tidewater Regional Jail.

###