LARCENY SUSPECT'S VEHICLE CATCHES FIRE

SUFFOLK, VA (December 9, 2015) Suffolk Police and Suffolk Fire & Rescue crews responded earlier this afternoon to a larceny incident that also involved a vehicle fire on the Monitor-Merrimac Memorial Bridge Tunnel.

Emergency Communications was notified at approximately 2:00 p.m. of a larceny at the WalMart located in the 6200 block of College Drive and the caller was able to provide a suspect vehicle description. The vehicle, a blue Toyota Camry, was observed leaving the Walmart area and the Officer engaged the vehicle. The vehicle continued driving onto Interstate 664 with smoke coming from the vehicle. The car eventually pulled over at the bridge office complex on the northbound side of the tunnel, at which time it was on fire. Suffolk Fire & Rescue crews also responded and the fire was extinguished. Traffic was briefly stopped on the bridge during the incident. There were no injuries.

A male and female occupant in the vehicle were arrested and charges are pending. The incident remains under investigation at this time and no further details are available.
