UPDATE

SUFFOLK, VA (October 12, 2015) The Suffolk Police Department advises that Brittany Jeter has been safely located and is now at another downtown Norfolk medical facility. The person she was seen leaving with earlier was a Medicab driver that had not checked in as is their normal procedure.

The Suffolk Police Department would like to thank the media and the public for their assistance.

SUFFOLK POLICE SEEKING PUBLIC'S ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING MISSING ENDANGERED WOMAN

SUFFOLK, VA (October 12, 2015) The Suffolk Police Department is asking for the public's assistance locating a missing endangered woman, Brittany Jeter, age 21. Ms. Jeter is white, 5'9", approximately 200 pounds with brown hair and brown eyes.

Ms. Jeter was reported missing shortly after 8:00 a.m. after her mother contacted police this morning. She had earlier contacted her mother via a text message at approximately 5:35 a.m. to advise she was being released from Sentara Norfolk General Hospital and she was supposed to be waiting in the lobby to be picked up by Medicab. She was last seen leaving the hospital accompanied by an unknown black male sometime between 8:00 a.m. and 8:15 a.m. and it was not known if they were walking or whether they left in a vehicle. Her phone is not turned on now.

Ms. Jeter was last seen wearing blue sweatpants, a grey long-sleeve t-shirt, a maroon VA Tech hat, and also had a blue sweatshirt and pink sweatshirt with her. She had a pink book bag, a dark blue Duke bag and two white paper bags with several stuffed animals in them.

Ms. Jeter suffers from a number of medical conditions and requires medications.

If anyone observes Ms. Jeter, please do not approach her but contact Suffolk 911 immediately.
