

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 19, 2015

Contact:

Diana L. Klink
757.514.4104
757.359.1845

Tim Kelley
757.514.4103
757.871.3039

POLICE MAKE ARREST IN BURGLARY OF CHURCH

SUFFOLK, VA (February 18, 2015) Suffolk Police have made an arrest following the burglary of a church located in the 700 block of Manning Road.

On February 17, 2015 at approximately 2:30 p.m. Emergency Communications received a call from a citizen advising of a suspicious white male that had gotten out of a vehicle in the 700 block of Manning Road, walked into the woods, and then walked out of the woods towards Holland Road. Upon investigation police found that someone had forced entry into the Family Harvest Church in the 700 block of Manning Road.

Using a description of the vehicle which was provided, the suspect was located a short time later and was interviewed at Police Headquarters. Jordan Andrew Hyatt, age 25, of Corapeake, North Carolina was arrested and charged with Entering Property of Another for Purpose of Damaging It, Etc., Destruction of Property and Trespassing, The investigation is ongoing and additional charges are pending.

###