SUFFOLK POLICE SEEK GRAND LARCENY SUSPECTS

SUFFOLK, Virginia (January 27, 2014) Suffolk Police are seeking the public's assistance in locating two subjects that were involved in a Grand Larceny at Lowe's. A third individual is considered a person of interest in this case.

The incident occurred on January 18, 2014 at the Lowe's located in the 1200 block of North Main Street when the two white males entered the store through the lumber entrance, met an older white male in the tools department where they spoke for some time before selecting two Dewalt tool combo kits, after which time the two white males exited the store through the main entrance without paying for the items. A witness observed a red 4-door hatchback that was believed to be the vehicle from which the subjects possibly left the scene.

The white male that had the cart with the tools in it in his possession throughout the store was wearing a camouflage Virginia Tech hat, jeans, and a white sweatshirt with a design on the front. The other white male was wearing a red Elmo hat, a black long sleeve shirt, and camouflage overalls.

The older male who is considered a person of interest at this time was wearing several layers of clothing which included a brown jacket, a grey jacket, and a plaid shirt. He had on a camouflage hat with a business logo on the front and green pants.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Line at 1-888-Lock-U-Up. When calling Crime Line, callers do not have to give their names or appear in court. If information leads to an arrest, the caller could qualify for a reward of up to $1,000.
