SUFFOLK POLICE DEPARTMENT SEEKING HISTORICAL INFORMATION

SUFFOLK, Virginia (June 26, 2014) - The Suffolk Police Department is looking for historical information about its Department and is seeking assistance from the public.

The Department is looking for old pictures, newspaper articles, correspondence, or police equipment. If you have any information you'd like to share, please contact the Suffolk Police Department so they can capture their history.

There are several ways you can get the information to the Suffolk Police Department, including the following:

- E-mail images of pictures to jhoward@suffolkva.us.

- Send a letter to:

Suffolk Police Historic Quest

P.O. Box 1678

Suffolk, Virginia 23439-1678

Attn: Joel Howard

If you want the items returned, include a self-addressed envelope.

- Set up an appointment with:

Joel Howard, Administrative Analyst

Suffolk Police Department

111 Henley Place

757-514-7905

Please include background information (dates, names, places, etc.) of the items sent.

Thanks for helping the Suffolk Police Department remember its past as it moves into the future!
