UPDATE

The repair work is still ongoing for the phone service disruption at the Mills E. Godwin Courts Complex and the Suffolk Visitor Center.

Some of the phones at the Courts Building are now working, however, the main extensions are still not operational. There is limited phone service at the Suffolk Visitor Center.

Work will continue throughout the day and into the early evening hours to cause the least amount of additional disruption to service.

MILLS E. GODWIN COURTS COMPLEX AND SUFFOLK DIVISION OF TOURISM PHONE SERVICE DISRUPTION

SUFFOLK, VA (May 28, 2013) Due to a damaged fiber line on North Main Street, phone service to both the Mills E. Godwin Courts Complex and the Suffolk Division of Tourism is experiencing outages.
