SUFFOLK POLICE DEPARTMENT PARTNERING WITH ODU FOR PREDICTIVE POLICING PROGRAM STUDY

SUFFOLK, VA (April 27, 2018) The Suffolk Police Department is working with Old Dominion University to evaluate efforts to improve the quality of policing and police patrols in the City of Suffolk.

Researchers from Old Dominion University's Social Science Research Center will be calling Suffolk residents to participate in a telephone survey about neighborhood quality as well as perceptions of crime and the police. If you receive a telephone call we hope you will participate in this important study. Your participation is voluntary.

If you have any questions, please contact Alexandria Whiteside of the Suffolk Police Department at 757.514.7995.
