POLICE MAKE ARREST FOLLOWING CARJACKING

SUFFOLK, Virginia (August 15, 2018) Suffolk Police have made an arrest following a carjacking that occurred Tuesday evening, August 14, 2018.

Upon preliminary investigation it was determined that the adult female had been at a residence in the 100 block of Saint James Avenue at approximately 8:08 p.m. with several known individuals. Following a verbal altercation she was physically assaulted and forcefully removed from her vehicle when she attempted to leave the residence. The vehicle, a 2018 Hyundai Elantra, was then taken without her consent with several of the involved individuals leaving the scene in the car.

The vehicle was located earlier this morning.

Following their investigation, Suffolk Police arrested Mycael Leon Parker, age 32, of Suffolk, earlier this morning, Wednesday, August 15, 2018, on charges including Carjacking and Assault & Battery – Simple, related to the incident. Mug shot attached.

The investigation remains ongoing and additional arrests and charges are forthcoming.
