

CAMP DATES: TUESDAY JUNE 21, 2022- FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 2022
SUFFOLK COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,
NARENDRA PLEAS HOSTS 1ST CSI CAMP

Free Camp for Youth Ages 12-15 ONLY

- This curriculum is designed to educate students on the study of forensics through criminal law. It is a one-week, ½ day program designed to teach Suffolk students about observation, photography, evidence collection, preservation and courtroom testimony.
- Forensic Experts and Assistant Commonwealth's Attorneys will educate the students on the kind of forensic evidence they look for when prosecuting cases.
- Students will become increasingly aware, and understand the realities, of criminal cases through forensics. The camp will build a deeper understanding of the decisions made by the Suffolk Commonwealth's Attorney's Office and the courts.
- Participation is open to students ages 12-15, who reside in Suffolk, VA or attend any school in Suffolk, VA. Students interested in attending this FREE class, must apply for admission by June 3, 2022. The class size is limited to 40 students. Space is limited to ensure a safe hands-on experience for all participants and faculty. Classes will be held each day from 8:30 am – 12:30 pm.
- To register, please complete an application and release form on the Suffolk Commonwealth's Attorney's website.
- For more information, contact Joan R. Turner, Community Outreach Coordinator at 757-514-4379 or jrtturner@suffolkva.us.
