

Suffolk Commonwealth’s Attorney, Narendra R. Pleas spoke at the Intergenerational Camp at East End Baptist Church on Tuesday, June 28, 2022. The topic was: Gangs & Youth Violence and both Officer Kristi Gaines and Deputy Commonwealth’s Attorney, Susan Walton spoke on how to “not become a part of a gang and the repercussions if deciding to join a gang”.

Joan Turner, Mother of Quantez Russell who is currently missing and was part of a gang, spoke on how both she and her family grieve wishing that her son had not joined a gang and how it affects their lives daily.

Pictured left to right: Joan Turner, Community Outreach Coordinator for the Suffolk Commonwealth’s Attorney’s Office, Officer Kristi Gaines of the Suffolk Police Department, Ms. Pleas-Suffolk Commonwealth’s Attorney and Ms. Susan Walton-Deputy Commonwealth’s Attorney.